IN SMITH FUNERAL BUSINESS BRIGHTENS

Bond Prices Soft, But Most Stocks Are Firm-To Consider Proposed Law.

Business brightened considerably of the Washington Stock Exchange today and amounted to 116 shares of stock and $4,000 in bonds. Prices of the latter were soft. Three thousand Washington Gas &s sold at 108, and $1,000 of Washington Kallway, is sold at 83, both the low prices of the year.

Capital Traction was a little firmer, a quotation lot selling at 120%, and a lot of Washington Gas gold at 85.

A ten-share lot of American Security and Trust Company sold at 300, 5 points below the previous low figure.

Offerings of Mergenthaler, first at 120%, and then au eighth better, were quickly taken. Ten shares at the lower and forty shares at the higher price were taken and a three-share lot sold at 2174. and $4,000 in bonds. Prices of the lat

The proposed "false statement" bill which was considered at the last meeting of the Bankers' Association of the District, will again be presented to the association before it is brought to the attention of Congress. Counsel is now examining the bill as drawn, after the form of that in the Pennsylvania Legislature, and when it has passed legal supervision will be considered again by the association, probably at the June meeting.

NEW YORK, May 12.-The Senate Committee on Military Affairs arrived in New York today to take up such weighty questions as the possible mounting of coast defense guns with a range of forty miles on the lop of the Woolworth building and the effect of numerous luncheons and dinners on the numerous luncheons and dinners on the fighting spirit of the average American as represented by committee members. The committee came here from the home of Frederick H. Allen, in Westchester county, where it had spent the night and, after luncheon in the Irving National Bank inspected the Woolworth building. Dinner at he Lotos Club was scheduled to follow and a theater party will close the day. The illness of young Vincent Astor, who had planned to entertain the committee members at his Rhineciff home caused some changes in the program originally arranged for the Setators, but despite this they have managed to worry along.
